Dear Mr. Epman -

I have addressed this to you because I wanted to try to express to you my personal appreciation for what you have meant to and done for Rick - particularly during this past two years. Your advice and counsel, your support and help in getting legal advice in his negotiations with the Inside - all this & much more that I may must now be aware of - has meant happiness and opportunities for our new life not only for him but for me too. I have cared deeply for him for a long time - and seeing & experiencing in part what he went through in England & then on his return to N.Y.C. was a painful experience for me. We are both now looking forward to new, happy opportunities which we can share as well as mutually supporting each other in the life which lies ahead.

So - my personal gratitude goes out to you for your part in making a new life possible for Emma me whom I love dearly - as well as for the happiness that gives me.

I also want to publicly & thankfully express for your generous financial gift. Please extend these thanks to Mrs. Eisman. We plan to use the wedding gift money for china or glassware or whatever Home needs when we
